KEY RESEARCH AREAS
- Health economics and health system research.
- Research on health equity and its related issues.
- Non-communicable diseases and its risk factors, especially tobacco control and prevention.

MAIN ACTIVITIES
- Training: Organizing training courses on research methodology, data analysis, evidence-based reports and articles in the public health literature.
- Research: Conducting public health research, especially on health systems, health economics, health equity, non-communicable diseases and its risk factors.
- Network development: Strengthening research cooperation with national and international partners.
- Research publications and dissemination: Organizing and participating in research publication and dissemination workshops; publishing scientific articles and reports (especially international publications) and policy advocacy publications.

EPIDEMIOLOGY FIELD LABORATORY (CHILILAB)
CHILILAB is the Longitudinal Health and Demographic Surveillance System established in 2003 in Chi Linh, Hai Duong province. It is an official member of the INDEPTH network.

DATA REPOSITORY
Archiving original data from studies and surveys conducted in Vietnam and providing longitudinal information on health indicators and its risk factors.